Soulfood Bellydance MEETING

sight-seeing packages

(optional, at extra cost, can be book with registration or directly in Egypt after arrival) calculation based on prices valid in march 2019

Karnak and Luxor temple (aprx. 3 hrs) both temples are dedicated to the Theban triad of Amun, Mut and Khonsu. Karnak temple is the largest building ever constructed and it is kind of a "city of temples" build over thousands of years. While Luxor temple has been a place of worship over all the years and its main function was during the annual Opet celebrations, when the statues of Amun, Mut and Khonsu were brought from Karnak.

incl. transfer, entrance fee and egyptologist guide (tips not included)

group of 4-5 people: 55 €/person

from 6 people: 45 €/person

Valley of the Kings and Hatshepsut temple (aprx. 3 hrs)

Valley of the Kings was the burial site of almost all the pharaohs of the 18th, 19th and 20th dynasties. It is located in the hills behind Deir al Bahri (Hatshepsut temple) and it is part of the Unesco World Heritage site of ancient Thebes. The entrance ticket includes 3 tombs, excluded from the entrance fee are for example the tombs of Tutankhamun or Seti I.

The mortuary temple of Queen Hatshepsut is located on the western bank of the Nile and it is one of the most beautiful of the mortuary temples.

incl. transfer, entrance fee and egyptologist guide (tips not included)

group of 4-5 people: 60 €/person

from 6 people: 50 €/person

Habu temple and tombs of the Nobles (aprx. 2,5 hrs)

Medinat Habu temple is the magnificent memorial temple of Ramses III and it is one of the most underrated sites in west bank. This temple is most famous for its vast amount of well preserved reliefs and massive statues of Ramses III. In the Nobles tombs we find wonderful and detailed decorations and scenes of their daily lives

incl. transfer, entrance fee and egyptologist guide (tips not included)

group of 4-5 people: 45 €/person

from 6 people: 40 €/person
